Revised 12/8/2018

Loan # [REDACTED] 5107

With respect to the share of a minor or a beneficiary under a legal disability, Trustee shall have the authority to place assets in safekeeping for the beneficiary until he or she reaches legal age or deliver all, or any part thereof, to the guardian of his or her person.

All reasonable expenses incurred for storage, packing, shipping, delivery or insurance of such tangible personal property on or before the expiration of one hundred twenty days from the date of Trustor's death shall be charged as an administrative expense of the Trust.

B.2.3 Specific Distributions. As soon as practicable after Trustor's death, Trustee shall make the following specific distributions:

B.2.3.1 Residence. Trustor and the Trust Estate has held title to the property located at 18205 106th Street East, Bonney Lake, Washington, and Trustor is currently named as co-signer or Surety on the primary residence loan executed by Sarah and primary lender for the purposes of securing financing on said property for Sarah. Accordingly, as soon as practicable after the death of Trustor, Trustee shall distribute any and all interest Trustor, or the Trust Estate, may have in that certain residence and real property located at 106th Street East, Bonney Lake, Washington, to Trustors' daughter, Sarah V. Hoover, if she is surviving. This distribution shall be in addition to Sarah's distributive share of the remainder Trust Estate and will carry with it any obligations against the residence. In the event Sarah is not surviving at the time of Trustor's death, or this residence and real property is not a part of the Trust Estate at the time of Trustor's death, this distribution shall lapse and be null and void.

Additionally, to the extent that Trustor or the Trust Estate is responsible for paying for any or all part of such loan, such amount shall be considered a loan
